

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

(Japanese follows English)

“Medical Entomology and Zoology” publishes original articles, short communications, case reports, notes and review articles concerning entomology and zoology in medical and related fields. In general, the notes describe the results of the field investigations and the new record of medically important arthropods. The manuscript should be written in English or Japanese in a clear, concise, direct style. Manuscripts are considered for publication only if they have not been published or submitted for publication elsewhere.

At least the first author or correspondence author must be a member of the Japan Society of Medical Entomology and Zoology in good standing. A non-member must pay the amount of ¥9,000, equivalent to one year's annual dues. However, a non-member who is non-Japanese authors from abroad are not required to pay the publication fee.

At least two referees will review all manuscripts. The Editorial Board will decide acceptance or rejection of each manuscript. Accepted manuscripts are published in the order they are accepted.

Authors may only correct editorial errors in the first proofreading.

Original articles, short communications, case reports and notes of not more than 32, 6, 6 and 6 printed pages, are free of charge. The authors are to pay for extra pages at actual costs.

Fifty reprints per set are obtained on payment of actual expenses. The required number of the sets must be ordered at the proof stage.

Costs for other changes determined as follows:
a. Excess pages will be charged at ¥3,000 per page.
b. Authors must pay actual expenses for Art page, colour print, block copy including trace and phototype-setting.

Authors must send their manuscript electrically with MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint documents to the editorial board (E-mail: jsmez_editors@jsmez.org). Alternatively, three hard copies can be posted to the Editorial Office, the Japan Society of Medical Entomology and Zoology. Except for pictures, two of the hard copies could be copies of the original documents. We do not return the hard copies of the submitted manuscripts.

Instruction to Authors

(1) Manuscript (both English and Japanese) should be prepared using MS Word and similar, and be in 11-point type, 1.5 spacing and 2.5 cm margins on all sides of A4 paper.

(2) Page numbers are placed at the bottom centre of the paper. Sequential numbering of lines is required.

(3) Figures should be kept as few as possible. Figures, figure legends and tables should be attached at the end of the manuscript separately from the text. If figures and tables are created using different software than the text, they are to be sent in separate files.

(4) All manuscripts of papers should include title, name(s), affiliation(s) and address(es) of all authors on the first page, abstract (not exceeding 200 words) and key words (not exceeding 6 words) on the second page, and a main text (introduction, materials and methods, results, discussion and acknowledgements), references, tables, figure captions and figures on the subsequent pages.

(5) Scientific names of animals and plants should be written in italic and given the author(s) name of the species at the first appearance in the text. From the second appearance, you should omit the name of the author(s) and abbreviate generic names. In the title of the manuscript, you should omit the name of the author(s). The year of publication of the scientific name should not be given unless the original paper describing it is cited.

(6) Numbers should be written in Arabic numerals and units in the metric system.

(7) Figures and tables should be made with MS Word, Excel and PowerPoint documents, and sent to the Editorial Office as attachment files. Format of figures, tables and their captions should follow the latest papers published in “Medical Entomology and Zoology” (<https://www.jstage.jst.go.jp/browse/mez>). For multi-page tables, the word “Continued” should in principle be substituted for the caption on the second and subsequent pages.

(8) All references cited in the text should be arranged alphabetically and listed according to the examples below. More than one paper by the same author in the same year must be identified by placing letters a, b, etc., after the year of publication. When referring to an abstract, you should state (conference abstract) in the reference.

Multiple authors' names connected with a comma while last author connected with 'and'. Journal names should be written with the abbreviation in italic. The abbreviation of the journal name should follow BIOSIS Serial Sources (<http://www.library.illinois.edu/biotech/j-abbrev.html>).
