

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Qualifications of contributors

First author or corresponding author must be a member of the society. However, all authors are recommended to be members of the society, if possible.

2. Manuscripts

- 1) Manuscripts including original papers, general articles, essays, investigations, reports, short communications, case reports, and personal memoirs of studying abroad that are suitable for the aims of this association and have not been published elsewhere are acceptable.
- 2) The copyright of the article belong to the society.
- 3) Reports clearly indicating that they are experimental works of clinical studies using humans and/or human materials should include a statement that the study is approved by the ethical committee of the institution where the study have been carried out. Reports including animals experiments should also declare that the study is carried out according to the guideline of the institution where the study has been performed with permission of the committee.
- 4) Please send manuscripts to the following address by e-mail.
jmsasedt@koto.kpu-m.ac.jp
As usual, mailing is also received.
- 5) Prepare the manuscripts A4 size paper.
- 6) Prepare the manuscripts in the following order.
 - Original papers in English
 - Summary in English (within 300 words), Introduction, Subjects and Methods, Results, Discussion, (Acknowledgments), References.
 - Write the following items on the first page in English.
 - Title, Authors' names, institutions and their addresses
 - Running title (within 40 spaces)
 - Address, telephone number, FAX number, e-mail adress of the first author (in Japanese)
 - Numbers of pages of the text, figures, and tables, and the total number ofpages
 - After the Summary, list 5 or less key words.
 - Attach a separate sheet indicating the title, authors, institutions and summary (600 characters) in Japanese.
- 7) Drugs must be referred to by their generic names, in principle, and commercial names with

R or TM (superscripts) may be used only when necessary.

- 8) Use units such as m, cm, mm, μ , m μ , Å, kg, g, mg, γ , L, dL, mL, sec, min, hr without a period.
- 9) All use of unpublished data with permission of the original authors, donations of research subsidies, and cooperators in the study other than the authors must be mentioned in the Acknowledgments.
- 10) After the Acknowledgements, for conflicts of interest with companies and organizations, please indicate the relationship.

3. Figures and Tables

- 1) Figures must be sufficiently clear for direct plate-making. Write the name of the first author and serial numbers on the figures. Use clear photographs, write serial numbers and the author's name, and indicate the top and bottom if necessary. Indicate the staining method and magnification for all tissue specimens. Follow these instructions also in preparation of tables.
- 2) Write legends for figures, tables, and photographs on separate sheets and in English, in principle. However, they may be written in Japanese in Japanese papers.
- 3) Indicate the positions in the text where figures, tables, and photographs should be inserted with their numbers in red.
- 4) Printing of photographs is basically in black and white. When the authors require color printing of figures, please be sure to notice it to the editorial office when submitting final version of your accepted manuscript or of your corrected proof. Without this requirement, all figures are printed in black and white even though the figures in the manuscript are in color.
The authors will be charged for the extra payment for color printing of the figures.

4. References

- 1) Capitalize the authors' names in English.
- 2) Write the names of all co-authors.
- 3) In author's names in English, put "and" before the last author and do not put a comma (.) after the second author from the last (immediately before "and").
- 4) Number the references in the order of their appearance in the text and show them following the examples below.

(1) Original papers

Ewing, J. A., Rouse, B. A. and Pellizzan, E. D.: Alcohol sensitivity and ethnic background. Am. J. Psychiat., 131:206-210, 1974.

(2) In individual publications, indicate the authors' names, title of the article, title of the book, editors' names, pages (first page-last page), publisher, address, and year of publication in this order. If they are published in more than one volume, follow the example of the journal.

Kiianmaa, K.: Evidence for involvement of noradrenaline and against 5-hydroxytryptamine neurons in alcohol consumption by rats. In: The effects of centrally active drugs on voluntary alcohol consumption (Sinclair, J. D. and Kiianmaa, K. eds.), pp.73-84, The Finnish Foundation for Alcohol Studies, Finland, 1975.

5. Review of manuscripts and acceptance or rejection

- 1) The manuscripts may be reviewed by experts other than the members of the editorial board if necessary. Reviews are made anonymously. Inquiries about reviews are accepted by the editor's office.

6. Proofreading

- 1) Manuscripts are proofread by the authors, in principle, once during the initial proofreading. If the proofs are not returned by the appointed date, they will be proofread by the editorial board. No addition of or changes in sentences or values is permitted during proofreading.

7. Cost of publication

- 1) The authors are charged for the costs of phototyping and relief printing.
- 2) Reprints are available at cost. Indicate the number of copies needed in the appropriate place in the manuscript during the authors' proofreading.
- 3) Publication fee
 - (1) Routine publications
If article published runs over 8 pages or less,

60% of the costs for plate-making and printing will be borne by our association, and the remaining 40% by the authors. For articles running over more than 8 pages, total expenses are charged to the authors.

(2) Special publications

If authors desire the earliest publication after the acceptance of the manuscript, it is handled as special publication. Special publications are made at the authors' request on condition that they agree to pay an extra charge of 30% of the above fees of routine publications. (No cost of publication is shared by the association even when the articles are 8 pages or less.)

(3) The fees must be paid after publication by postal transfer on the basis of invoices issued by our association.

8. Conflict of interest

In accordance with the guidelines on conflict of interest of Japanese Medical Society of Alcohol and Drug Studies, please submit the COI report by self-reported at the time of posting. Please download from http://www.f.kpu-m.ac.jp/k/jmsas/pdf/coi_26_jp.pdf

9. Miscellaneous

- 1) A bulletin for announcements of conferences and symposia is available. Contact the editor for more information.
- 2) All quotations and reproductions from other publications (especially figures and tables) must be made with clarification of the sources and permission by their authors and publishers.

10. Address your manuscripts to:

Editorial Office, Japanese Journal of Studies on Alcohol and Drug Dependence
C/o Department of Psychiatry, Kyoto Prefectural University of Medicine, Kawaramachi-Hirokoji, Kamigyo-ku, Kyoto 602-8566, Japan